ECLIPSES, 1944—E. S. T.

In the year 1944 there will be two eclipses both of the Sun.

I. A total eclipse of the Sun, January 25, visible as a partial eclipse over Southern United States, Mexico, Central America, South America, except the extreme Southern part, and Northwest and Central Africa. The path of totality begins in the East Pacific, crosses Peru and Brazil; and ends in North Central Africa.

II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, July 19-20, visible as a partial eclipse over Eastern Africa, Central and Southern Asia, and Australia except the Southwestern part. The path of the annulus begins in Equatorial Africa near the Eastern Coast, crosses India, Burma, Indo China, the Philippine Islands; and ends in the Pacific east of New Guinea.

*For Central Standard Time subtract one hour.

Memoranda

WHAT THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT MEANS TO YOU.

It will provide a system of insurance benefits payable to you and your dependents.

It applies if you are a qualified worker and have been employed for the required length of time in employment covered by the act. Practically all employment, except certain agricultural labor, domestic service in private homes, services performed in the employ of foreign governments etc., are covered by the act.

BENEFITS PAID UNDER THE ACT

1. Monthly Old Age retirement benefit.
2. Supplementary benefit paid under certain circumstances to wives and children of persons receiving monthly old age retirement benefits.
3. Survivor benefits paid to survivors of certain previously employed and deceased persons.

TO RECEIVE MONTHLY OLD AGE BENEFITS YOU MUST BE:

1. 65 or over.
2. Fully insured.
 - (a.) By having worked in employment covered by the Act for at least 40 calendar quarters from 1936 in each of which you have earned at least $50.00.
 - (b.) By meeting certain requirements.
 - (1) Figure the number of calendar quarters between 1936 and when you reach 65.
 - (2) Figure the number of calendar quarters after 1936 in which you have worked and earned at least $50.00, whether these quarters occur before or after you reach 65.
 - (3) If the number of quarters in (2) is at least 6 and equals $\frac{1}{2}$ of the number arrived at in figuring (1) you are fully insured.
 - (c) Have retired.

METHOD OF FIGURING YOUR BENEFITS

The amount of your benefits is based on your average monthly wages and the number of years covered since 1936 in which you have earned at least $200.00.

To figure the amount of your benefit take 40% of the first $50.00 of your average monthly wage and add 10% of the amount by which the average wage exceeds $50.00 and does not exceed $250.00.

For example, if your average monthly wage is $100.00

Figure 40% of the $50.00	=	$20.00
Plus 10% of the remaining $50	=	5.00
Total	=	$25.00

This amount is increased at the rate of 1% for each year of coverage.

If you have 5 years coverage that would be $5 \times 1\%$ of \$25.00 or \$1.25 added to \$25.00 giving you a total benefit of \$26.25 a month.

This may be changed by additional supplementary benefits provided in the law for wives, children, etc.

YOUR PART OF THE TAX

The Taxes called for in this law will be paid both by your employer and by you.

That is to say from January 1, 1937 to 1942 you will pay 1c. for every $1.00 you earn and at the same time your employer will pay 1c. for every dollar you earn up to $3,000 a year.

Beginning in 1943 deductions for old age retirement benefits will be as follows:

1943, 1944, 1945—2%—1946, 1947, 1948—2½%—1949 on—3%

Your employer will also pay an equal amount.

The two pages following are to help you keep an accurate record of your employers and also your earnings for the year, taxed for old age retirement benefit.

Dear Sam,

Thank you for the membership card of the Association of Ex-Members of Squadron A. It brings back a few memories of the pleasant times I had while riding in the 101st Cavalry. Right now I am the senior medical officer of a construction battalion (sea-bees) of the Navy. We have had some exciting moments to say the least. Where we will move to next only the high command knows but before this thing is over I venture to say we will have land on many a strange shore. But no matter "how humble, there's no place like home," however true that may seem. I can still see you riding your fine thoroughbred as much a part of the horse as his shoes. Best of luck to you.
Dr. Rogers.

Dear Sam,

Many thanks for your very fine letter which I enjoyed very much even though I haven't made much sense out of it yet. But some night I am going to sit down quietly and really read it thoroughly. Anyway, the news at the moment is that a very good friend of mine is going to be in New York before long. He is Flight Lieutenant (equals Captain) John Sinclair, and he is a navigator in the RAF, and a great guy. He is going over for a pilots course, and while he probably won't be in New York very long, he hopes to get there at some time during his travels. He has the DFC and the DSO, and is all the RAF boys are supposed to be. I have told him to look you up, and even hinted to him that if you weren't too crowded you might even let him spend a night in the pink room, with or without elephants, whichever he chooses. I also tried to warn him against your haunted houses, but I don't think I was even able to suggest the dangers involved, so he will just have to learn the hard way like everyone else. Anyway, he will call you when he gets to town, and if you could invite him up for a drink I would certainly appreciate it. Bea has been very sick, and is in Salem now recovering from two operations. I suppose she will be there for some time, but she is evidently over the worst. Jack tried to get back from Italy, but as far as I know at the moment he has not been able to work it. Jo has been in Salem with Bea. Bea is in the Memorial Hospital there. It was a close call, but the latest letter I have from Jo says that she is improving as time goes on. From your letter, which I guess I must have understood pretty well after all, I gather that the old house is not what it used to be, but after the war we will have to kick the interlopers out and get things back to normal. I was glad to hear that things are going well at the Squadron. Give my regards to Laddie, and the rest. Do you remember Robinson who was in our Company? He arrived or rather spent a day here a short time ago and will be stationed not far away. Well, that's about the top of the news from here. More later, and let me know if John arrives. Best to Mary. Sincerely,

V-MAIL

French Colony Is Jubilant Over News of Liberation of Paris

By MARGARET FOLLIN EICKS.

"How is your writing going?" 8-year-old Charles Tatham 3rd wrote his talented mother, Julie Campbell Tatham, from camp this summer. Then, trying his own hand at a story, he consulted her in her new role as a literary agent. "Do you think the publishers will like this?" he queried seriously.

Mrs. Charles Tatham, Jr.

Julie's sons, Charlie and younger Campbell, are as excited about their mother's storming of the literary field as she is. And she reciprocates by using them as guinea pigs for children's material. "We've been living in the country for three years, gardening in a big way and really rustivating. It's good to be back in the city," Julie enthuses, meaning it's good to be in the career world again. Her friends gave her two months when the Tatham family first moved to the country. "She'll never be able to stand it," they prophesied of urban Julie who loved New York and the jobs—from newspaper writer to assistant hotel manager—that she had held here.

But they were wrong. Julie found she loved "nature" and is proving it by the speed with which transports the writers she represents to the country for long, restful week ends.

The daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Archibald Campbell, she and her husband, a public utilities analyst, have taken an apartment at 56 E. 87th St. for the winter.

Julie hopes to write some more of the subdeb stories by which she was winning a name when her interests switched to raising small boys. Letter writing takes up lots of her time what with four of her brothers in the service. Jack, a major, is in Australia. Gordon, a submarine commander, is goodness knows where. Donny, a major and a surgeon, is en route to another foreign post and Allan, another major, is teaching at Fort Sill. The fifth brother, Archibald, Jr., was in the last war. Service life comes naturally to them for their grandfather, as well as their father, was a general. John Campbell served in both the Civil and Mexican wars. There are four girls in the family, too. Mrs. Henry MacDonald, Mrs. Walter A. Galt and Mrs. Richard F. Humphreys, the latter proud mama of her first baby.

Charlie Tatham is very much interested in his wife's new career. A writer for learned financial papers, he may yet be inspired to follow the example of his grandfather, E. P. Roe, one of the most prolific novelists of an earlier generation.

up at the Colony last night carrying the French tricolor and waving it aloft as friends arrived for dinner. Mrs. Dodge Sloane and the Eddie McIlvains happily sipped French champagne and Nickie Holmsen joined them in that celebration.

Whiteholme Auction.

Mrs. Townsend Phillips provided Newport with its major mystery of the summer when she bid in at auction Whiteholm, the beautiful villa once owned by the late Dr. Henry Barton Jacobs. Annette Pell Townsend Phillips has her own Newport place, a Rhode Island Ave. home left her some years ago by her cousin, Charlotte Pell, and friends in the socialite auction audience, watching Annette's tense bidding, couldn't imagine what she wanted with another one.

When Whiteholme was knocked down to her for $36,000, Annette, radiating mystery and importance, announced she was buying the place for a Mr. T., whoever he may be.

Throughout the afternoon, when furnishings were being sold, Annette sat almost at the elbow of Gus White, the auctioneer, with a proprietary air, thoroughly enjoying the limelight.

GREENWICH WEDDING FOR BETTYJANE RUWE

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

GREENWICH, Conn., July 29—

Miss Bettyjane Ruwe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Clement Ruwe of Bobolink Lane, this place, was married here this afternoon to Bates Halsey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hurtin Halsey of New York, in Christ Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert R. Gilson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, trimmed at the heart-shaped neckline with rose point lace, and a tulle veil fastened to a lace coronet. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Elizabeth Walser Seelye was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Jean Ferryman, cousin of the bride; Mary Halsey, sister of the bridegroom; Jane Nye and Winifred Clinger. Thayer P. Draper was best man.

Mrs. Halsey attended the Rye Country Day School and the Madeira School, and was graduated from Wells College. Her husband studied at Choate School and the University of Virginia.

Discount Corp. Promotes Officers; One to New Board Chairmanship

Dudley H. Mills

Herbert N. Repp

The board of directors of the Discount Corporation of New York announced yesterday that Dudley H. Mills, who has been a director fourteen years and president for the last ten years, has been elected chairman of the board. There had been no chairman. The board also announced that Herbert N. Repp, who has been associated with the corporation twenty-one years and has been a director seven years and a vice president eight years, has been elected president.

The corporation, whose principal stockholders are Wall Street banks, is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary. Formed after the World War, it has been one of the chief factors in the New York money market and a leading dealer in United States Government securities. Until the present war dislocated world trade, it was a leading dealer in bankers' acceptances. The original capital funds of the corporation consisted of capital of $5,000,000 and surplus of $1,000,000. In 1940, when these funds had been increased to $12,000,000, $6,000,000 was returned to stockholders, the virtual drying-up of the market for bankers' acceptances having made the extra capital funds unnecessary. It was stated at the corporation yesterday that it would re-enter the bankers' acceptances market after the war when normal foreign trade was resumed. It now has capital of $2,000,000, surplus of like amount and about $2,000,000 of undivided profits and reserves.

George A. Sloan

George A. Sloan, a director of the United States Steel Corporation for seven years, was elected yesterday a member of the finance committee to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of William J. Filbert. Mr. Sloan was president of the Cotton Textile Institute from 1929 to 1935 and has been chairman of the Mayor's Business Advisory Committee since June, 1940.

State of Equilibrium
Time 9/6/44
MAJOR GENERAL DAVIS

Maj. Gen. Robert Courtney Davis, who had a soldier's burial at Arlington Cemetery yesterday, was not yet 68. Few men have worked harder or to better purpose. From West Point he passed through the grades to major general. He took part in the campaign against Santiago de Cuba, in the battle of El Caney, and in the Philippines in various engagements against the insurgents. He was "Major General the Adjutant General" from 1922 till his retirement in 1927. His was the great task, successfully performed, of administering the Adjusted Compensation Act and distributing payment to the returned soldiers. He had a genius for administration, and he plowed his way easily through confusions and complications.

As assistant, acting or Adjutant General in 1918 he saw in six months an increase of the Army from 300,000 to 2,000,000. A member of the board appointed to consider the reorganization of the General Staff, he stayed in the War Department till after reorganization had been effected. In the last five years his labors as executive director of the New York Chapter of the American Red Cross have made him one of the best known and valued figures of this community. Before the United States entered the war the Chapter gave intelligent, fruitful and manifold relief to refugees and other sufferers abroad. Constantly asking for more nurses, ambulance drivers, contributions of food and supplies, the humane impulses it had quickened responded again and again and always more generously after the country took a hand in the struggle.

The Chapter has been fertile in ways and means of aid. The blood banks are but one of the most striking of a whole series of intelligent and effectual helps of our armed forces. Health and life, rest, recreation have been given here and across the seas to the men and to their families. The Red Cross has been multifariously kind and able. As the strong and gentle head of this great stationary and traveling college of benevolence and good-will, General Davis endeared himself to millions and added new honor to an honorable career.

LONGSTRETH, MAKER OF SYNTHETIC RUBBER

Founder and Head of Thiokol Corp. of Trenton Dies Here

Trenton 3/2/44

Bevis Longstreth, founder and president of the Thiokol Corporation of synthetic rubber, died here yesterday at Roosevelt Hospital after a brief illness. He was 50 years old.

A graduate of Princeton University, Class of 1915, Mr. Longstreth was studying at Harvard Law School when the First World War began. He entered the Army and served as a first lieutenant in the tank corps overseas.

Mr. Longstreth leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary Agnes Shiras Longstreth; two daughters, Peggy and Dorothy, and a son, Bevis Longstreth Jr. The family home is in Princeton, N. J.

A funeral service will be held in the university chapel at Princeton
